

- III. The Significance of Baptism Q: What does Baptism accomplish for the believer? A: Through Baptism, we are united with Christ in His death and resurrection, signifying not just a cleansing of the body, but an appeal to God for a clear conscience. Baptism now saves us through the resurrection of Jesus Christ. (cf. CCC 1213, 1257)
- IV. The Gift of the Holy Spirit Q: What is the significance of receiving the Holy Spirit? A: Upon hearing and believing the gospel of salvation, we are marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit, which is the source of love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, and other virtues. (cf. CCC 1316, 1832)
- V. The Promise of Resurrection Q: What is the Christian's hope in the Resurrection? A: If Christ has not been raised, our faith is futile, but since Christ has been raised from the dead, He is the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep, thus guaranteeing our own resurrection. (cf. CCC resurrection)
- VI. Eternal Life Through Christ Q: How do Christians understand eternal life? A: The wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. Those who follow Christ have the promise of eternal life and will never be snatched from His hand. (cf. CCC 1020, 1038)

Conclusion: The Call to Embody Agape Love in Preparation for the Kingdom of Heaven

- I. Contemplation of Mortality and Eternity Q: How should the faithful

regard their temporal existence in light of eternity? A: Our life on earth is but a brief moment compared to the eternal life promised by Christ. Scripture warns us to consider the worth of our soul above earthly gains, reminding us that our ultimate profit lies not in worldly success but in the salvation of our soul. (cf. CCC 1024-1025, 1036-1037)

- II. The Imperative of Constant Vigilance Q: What attitude should the faithful adopt in anticipation of the Kingdom of Heaven? A: Christians are called to live in a state of constant vigilance, preparing for the Kingdom of Heaven, which is not a temporal realm but a spiritual reality within us. This anticipation requires a heart transformed by grace, expressed through a life of love and mercy. (cf. CCC 1720, 2730)
- III. The Personal Judgment and the Parable of Readiness Q: What does the parable of the ten virgins teach us about personal readiness for the Kingdom of Heaven? A: The parable of the ten virgins emphasizes the individual's responsibility to be prepared for the coming of the Lord, signifying that the grace of God is a personal gift that must be actively nurtured. Our lives must reflect this grace through agape love, exemplifying our readiness to enter the joy of our Master. (cf. CCC 1021-1022, 1844)

I. Understanding Salvation

Q: By whom and how are we saved? A: Salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to mankind by which we must be saved. It is by grace through faith that we are saved, a gift of God, not a result of our own works. (cf. CCC 432, 1996)
